What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

PEARSON-PATCH IS THE LATEST FEMINE FAD

William Fox Film Star Starts Something New and Clever.

Virginia Pearson, known as the "Modern Cleopatra," who is starring in the latest picture produced by William Fox, "A Blazing Love," is inventor of an innovation in society fads which already has had imitators in cities from coast to coast. From the ordinary "beauty-spot" this talented actress now appearing in "screen-life," has evolved something with more art in it.

This famed film beauty cuts out in black silhouette the outline of a human face. This she wears on her face or breast as a "beauty patch."
The effect, as may be fancied, is striking—and may mean more than a mere patch of black to bring out the color of fair skin.

Pastime today.

At the Alta.

During the picturization of the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company's production, "The Race," to be seen at Alta on Friday and Saturday in which Victor Moore is to star, supported by Anita King, the Paramount Girl, and an all-star cast, betting was two to one at the studio that the principals would not finish their picture whole. In the first two days they had four mishaps. The first day Victor Moore was arrested for driving with his muffler open. The same day while Miss King was trying out the racer which had been loaned by Barney Oldfield, famous racing driver, she skidded on a slippery street and slew a "d." The next day while watching an explosion, Miss King was struck in the side by a flying piece of rock and knocked down. It was thought at first two ribs were broken and she was rushed to the hospital.
Fortunately she suffered only a bad bruise. Percy Hildbourn, the photographer, was also knocked down by the force of the explosion, but fortunately the camera was uninjured.

LOIS WEBER CO-STAR
WITH TYRONE POWER

When Bluebird Day arrives at the Cosy theater on Thursday and Friday there will be shown further evidence of the remarkable cleverness of Lois Weber, who will be co-star with Tyrone Power in the presentation of "The Eye of God," a psychological drama, having crime as its basis and pointing the great lesson that no matter where we go or what we may do the eye of God is upon us, seeking out our sins and penetrating our inner consciousness.

Miss Weber not alone wrote the story of the play but provided the scenario and helped her husband, Phillips Smalley, in directing one of the most mysterious and cleverly contrived crime-dramas of the period. To the Bluebird program Miss Weber has previously contributed her manifold talents, having made her first appearance in the series when she acted the leading role in "Hop, the Devil's Drew," with Mr. Smalley her co-star and also with her co-director.

The Rex Vaudeville Co.
Play a three day engagement at the Temple, starting today. This company comes highly recommended.
Their feature on the bill tonight is Mogneni, the famous gypsy tenor, whom Martin Beck featured over his Orpheum circuit.

With CHAS. DUNN and ETHEL WEBER

Story and Scenario by Lois Weber—Directed by the Smalleys

"The Nature man" was the result of the forces of nature, carve out his own existence. Having proven this by previous experiments, one conducted in the Maine woods and the other in the mountains of California and the Sierra Nevada range, Mr.
Knowles undertook to do it for the benefit of the moving picture camera.
For sheer gorgeousness of scenery, the natural wonders of wild mountains, virgin forest, rushing cataracts and huriling waterfalls, no picture which has ever been taken is the equal of "The Nature Man."
